

Position: Business Analyst click here for apply!!
Location: Bangkok

Responsibilities

- Support an overall process of strategy formulation and risk management.
- Support and review the company strategy with management to confirm if the strategy implementation is on track for company direction and define company Wildly Important Goals (WIGs or so-called KPIs)
- Be the focal point for developing the company business plan, 5-year financial projection and following year budget for management.
- Cooperate budget challenging sessions with budget owners.
- Facilitate and administer annual strategic & risk workshops to align top-down and bottom-up approach for setting following year company's WIGs and Lead Measures (LMs) as well as targets.
- Manage corporate performance using tools such as Balance Score Card (BSC) and risk dashboard concepts to define goals, targets, action plans, Key Risk Indicator (KRI) and mitigation plans, then measure monthly result. Apply SMART approach to set goals and performance scoring criteria in order to avoid conflict of interest and motivate employee collaboration to achieve the targets.
- Support industry and market intelligence for business decision.
- Perform other duties as assigned by direct manager.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration/Economics/Marketing or related fields in petrochemical industry. Candidate with Finance & Accounting knowledge is an advantage.
- A few years experience in business analysis / business development or petrochemical production process is advantage.
- Experience with SAP and Business Warehouse is preferable.
- Hands on experience in MS Excel, Power Point, One drive.
- Good command of spoken and written English
- Self-motivated and good communication skill
- Analytical and systematic thinking skill
- Working under pressure