

Position: Manager, Security and Emergency Response click here for apply!!

Location: Rayong

Responsibilities:

- Assist line management in establishing, developing and administering an adequate Security and Emergency Management program.
- Perform Security and Emergency program assessment to measure and evaluate management compliance with plant HSE standard and communicate the results to employees and contractors.
- Ensure the compliance of all applicable regulations and standards.
- Maintain and ensure effective and sufficient of security and emergency response related equipment and management system.
- Maintain HSE training center, which will develop employees and contractor clear understanding of the HSE responsibilities established by plant safety program.
- Set up emergency preparedness and response plan including drill to meet the applicable laws, standard as well as company risks
- Field inspections and routine visit of plant areas and directly involved in all phases of the plant operation activities.
- Ensure the effectiveness and fit for purpose of all security and emergency related support team according to the contracts
- Ensure the readiness and competency of emergency response team, management team and crisis management as well as it's facilities.
- Advise or recommend in purchasing of new equipment and materials with safety implications including personnel protective equipment (PPE) and ensure the readiness of it's stocks.
- Develop and maintain knowledge of plant equipment, processes, procedures, raw materials, products, change of Security and Emergency system
- Others which are assigned by HSE DM.

Qualifications:

- BSc. in Engineering or related Safety, Security and Emergency management function.
- At least 5 years industrial in similar field
- Special Skills / Knowledge: Technical and supervisory of security and emergency response management and operational as well as applicable law/regulation
- Good English communication skill (TOEIC 650)
- Good leadership skill/ work collaboration/ teamwork/ Good attitude to work

HMC Polymers

